About our Instructor

Karoline Shaw is a current barn owner, lesson instructor, and trainer. She enjoys taking students to shows, competing herself, and judging local shows in her free time. Karoline has been professionally judging for the past 5 years. Prior to that Karoline competed in horse judging competitions in FFA and 4-H through high school. She then went on to compete on a national level with Penn State University. Karoline appreciates these experiences and has used it to make her a more educated horsewoman.
